About Us

Peninsula Community Legal Centre is an independent, not-for-profit organisation that has been providing free legal services to Melbourne's south-eastern communities for more than 30 years.

The Centre helps people use the law to protect and advance their rights, offering free advice on most legal issues. Ongoing assistance is targeted to assist clients who are experiencing disadvantage. In addition to its general services, the Centre operates Family Law, Child Support, Intervention Order, Tenant and Consumer Advocacy Programs.

Peninsula Community Legal Centre utilises the skills and work of volunteers to extend and enhance its operations and service delivery.

Community legal education, special projects and participation in law reform are also important aspects of the Centre's work.

Who can use the legal centre?

Free services are available to people who live, work or study in the municipalities of the Frankston, Casey, Cardinia, Glen Eira, Kingston and the Mornington Peninsula.

Ongoing assistance is available subject to guidelines.

Confidentiality and privacy are assured.

Telephone and onsite interpreters available.
