

INFORMATION ABOUT VOLUNTEERING

About Peninsula Community Legal Centre

Peninsula Community Legal Centre is an independent, not-for-profit organisation that has been providing free legal services to Melbourne's south-eastern communities for more than 35 years.

The Centre helps people use the law to protect and advance their rights, offering free advice on most legal issues. Ongoing assistance is targeted to assist clients who are experiencing disadvantage. In addition to its general services, the Centre operates Family Law, Child Support, Family Violence, Tenant and Consumer Advocacy Programs.

Community legal education, special projects and participation in law reform are also important aspects of the Centre's work.

Mission Statement

To empower and support disadvantaged and vulnerable people in our community to address their legal need.

What Volunteers Do

Peninsula Community Legal Centre utilises the skills and work of volunteers to extend and enhance its operations and service delivery. We currently run eight volunteer sessions per week. Most of these sessions are completely volunteer-run, which maximises our limited resources.

At our volunteer advice sessions, qualified lawyer volunteers provide clients with free legal advice. Paralegal / non-lawyer volunteers co-ordinate the session, conduct a preliminary client interview and provide assistance to lawyer volunteers (such as resource and referral information and administrative support). Paralegal volunteers may also sit in on interviews to gain an understanding of legal issues and the advice required. Volunteers may also be involved in administrative and project work.

Induction and Training

It is compulsory for all paralegal volunteers to undertake training before commencing. Training sessions are conducted as required, either in group sessions or on a one-on-one basis. Group training usually runs for a full day, while one-on-one training may be spread over several shorter training sessions. This will vary according to PCLC volunteer requirements at the time.

An induction for volunteer lawyers will be undertaken prior to commencing.

Volunteer commitment

It is expected that volunteers at PCLC will commit to a minimum of 12 months participation on the volunteer roster.

PCLC priorities for accepting volunteers

Applicants should be 18 years of age or over, and priority will be given to applicants who live, work or study in the PCLC catchment area and/or provide the skills and experience which PCLC and its client communities need.

HOW TO BECOME A VOLUNTEER WITH PENINSULA COMMUNITY LEGAL CENTRE

Peninsula Community Legal Centre is not always able to provide volunteer positions for all applicants. Capacity to place applicants will depend upon the need for particular skills, applicants' ability to meet those skills requirements, and the number of volunteers already working with us.

1. Complete and return the Volunteer Application form (see below).
2. When an appropriate vacancy arises, you will be contacted and invited for induction and/or training.
3. When you have completed the relevant induction and/or training requirements, and signed the Worker Privacy and Confidentiality Undertaking, you will be eligible to be included on the volunteer roster when an appropriate vacancy arises.
4. As per PCLC policy, all paralegal volunteers will be requested to complete and sign a Consent to Check and Release National Police Record (the cost to be borne by PCLC) or provide a current Nation Police Record certificate or Working with Children card. More information will be provided to you about this process if you are successful in gaining a place at a training session.
