*Service to the Community
since 1977*

On 9 November, 2010, the Honourable Greg Hunt MP, Shadow Minister for Climate Action, Environment and Heritage, attended Peninsula Community Legal Centre's Rosebud Branch to learn firsthand about the Legal Centre and the services it provides to residents of the Mornington Peninsula.

PCLC is a not-for-profit organisation that has been providing free legal services to the community for over 30 years. The Centre offers a range of client services, including dedicated Family Law, Family Violence, Child Support, Tenant and Consumer Programs. The Centre also undertakes special projects, community legal education and law reform activities.

PCLC's services are targetted to the most disadvantaged and marginalised in the community who may otherwise fall through the gaps. Our client's life circumstances can be severely affected by their legal problems and they are often not able to access other legal services.

From July 2009-June 2010, over 1300 people from the Mornington Peninsula Shire utilised the free legal advice services available at Peninsula Community Legal Centre.

For more information about free legal services, contact Peninsula Community Legal Centre's Rosebud Branch on 5981 2422 or visit www.pclc.org.au.
