Legal Centre

ABOUT US

PCLC is an independent, not-for-profit organisation that has been providing free legal services since 1977. We pride ourselves on providing high quality services that are accessible and responsive to the needs of our community.

Free legal services are provided by staff and volunteers who are qualified lawyers or trained advocates.

We have dedicated programs covering family law, family violence, fines, tenancy and rooming house.

PCLC is committed to holistic practice and can provide alternative referral options to services such as social work and financial counselling.

We also provide information and education about the law.

CAN WE HELP YOU?

PCLC offers free legal services to people who live, work or study in the municipalities of Frankston, Casey, Cardinia, Glen Eira, Kingston and Mornington Peninsula.

Our Tenancy Assistance and Advocacy Program assist clients across a larger catchment area:

Bayside Peninsula Region – municipalities of Bayside, Frankston, Glen Eira, Kingston, Port Phillip, Stonnington and Mornington Peninsula.

Southern Melbourne Region – municipalities of Cardinia, Casey and Greater Dandenong

Free legal advice is available to most people, but ongoing assistance is subject to guidelines that prioritise clients experiencing disadvantage.

We may also be able to refer you to other services that can help you.
